On January 5, 2018, having received an extension of time from the District Judge in this action to participate in a settlement conference after the original deadline of January 8, 2018, the parties requested that this Court conduct a settlement conference on February 15, 2018. The Court set the conference for that date. On February 8, 2018, as part of his required confidential settlement conference statement, counsel for plaintiff for the first time informed the Court that he is scheduled to be in trial on the date set for the settlement conference, a trial date that was set well before the parties requested the date for the settlement conference.

No later than noon on Wednesday, February 14, 2018, counsel for plaintiff is ordered to show cause, in writing, why he should not be sanctioned for his representation to this Court that he was available to participate in a settlement conference on February 15, 2018, when in fact he is not. A hearing on the order to show cause shall take place on Thursday, February 15, 2018, at 8:00 a.m. in Courtroom 780, 7th floor, Roybal Courthouse. Counsel for plaintiff and defendants are directed to appear at that time, and shall be prepared to discuss settlement of this action.
